PACOG 2050 Long Range Transportation Plan A

TAC Meeting A April 4, 2026 A

Purpose of Today

- 1A Brief Update Since January TACA
- 2A Key Changes in the 2050 RTPA
- 3A Focus on Differences from 2045 Plan A
- 4A Final Input Before Adoption A

Today we're focusing on what's changed, what's been refined, and what that means for the region as we move toward adoption A.

Where We Are Now

- Final Draft Plan Completed

The full plan has been compiled and is ready for adoption.

- Public and Stakeholder Comment Period Closed

Feedback from stakeholders and the public has been collected, recorded, and adjustments to the plan have been made, as appropriate.

- GHG Analysis Analyzed

The analysis of greenhouse gas emissions is complete and the PACOGA GHG Transportation Report has been approved by the State.

- Moving Toward April Adoption

The overall planning process is complete and the plan is ready for consideration.

Four Major Changes Since the 2045 LRTPA

- Greenhouse Gas Requirements
New regulations and targets for reducing emissions.
- Stronger Fiscal Constraint
Increased limitations and considerations on budget and funding.
- Introduction of Aspirational Projects
Inclusion of forward-thinking, ambitious initiatives.
- Direct Link Between Engagement & Investment
Establishing a clear connection between public/stakeholder involvement and project funding.

Rather than walking through every chapter again, we're focusing on four areas that fundamentally changed how this plan was built.

Major Shift #1: Greenhouse Gas Requirements

- New State Mandate

This requirement is a new addition, external to the original 2045 plan.

- Demonstrable Reductions

Projects must now actively prove their greenhouse gas emissions are being reduced.

- Strategic Impact

This significantly influences how projects are selected and shapes our overall system strategy.

This requirement significantly influences project selection and overall system strategy.

What Drives GHG Reduction

Travel Behavior Changes

Promoting remote work and flexible schedules.

Multimodal Investments

Enhancing infrastructure for walking, cycling, and shared mobility.

Transit Improvements

Increasing frequency, reliability, and accessibility of public transportation.

System Efficiency

Optimizing traffic flow, reducing congestion, and promoting greener vehicle technologies.

Reductions aren't driven by one project—they're driven by how the entire system performs and how people use it.

Major Shift #2: Fiscal Constraint

Stronger & Explicit

Federal Requirement for LRTPs

Necessitates fiscal prudence and alignment of project costs with available revenue.

Program Balance

The program is fully balanced through 2050, ensuring financial sustainability.

Total Program Cost

~$1.06 Billion

Funding Gap

None

This plan explicitly demonstrates that every project can be funded using reasonably expected revenues, planning within real financial limits.

Why This Matters: Fiscal Reality

Aligns Plan with Implementation

Ensures the project plan is realistic and achievable within the actual implementation constraints.

Improves Credibility

Enhances trust and confidence with key stakeholders like FHWA and CDOT.

Supports Funding Competitiveness

Strengthens the ability to compete effectively for available funding opportunities.

Reflects Actual Delivery Capacity

Accurately represents the region's true capacity for project delivery.

"In the last plan, the project list was broader and less tied to funding. This time, we've taken a more disciplined approach to reflect what can actually be delivered."

Major Shift #3: Aspirational Projects A

27 Regionally Significant Projects A

These projects are identified as important at a regional level.

Not Fiscally Constrained A

These projects are not limited by current available funds.

Grant/Voter-Approved Funding Reliant A

Typically depend on external grants or voter-approved funding sources.

This is new for this plan. These projects reflect regional priorities that don't yet have secure funding but are important to keep advancing.

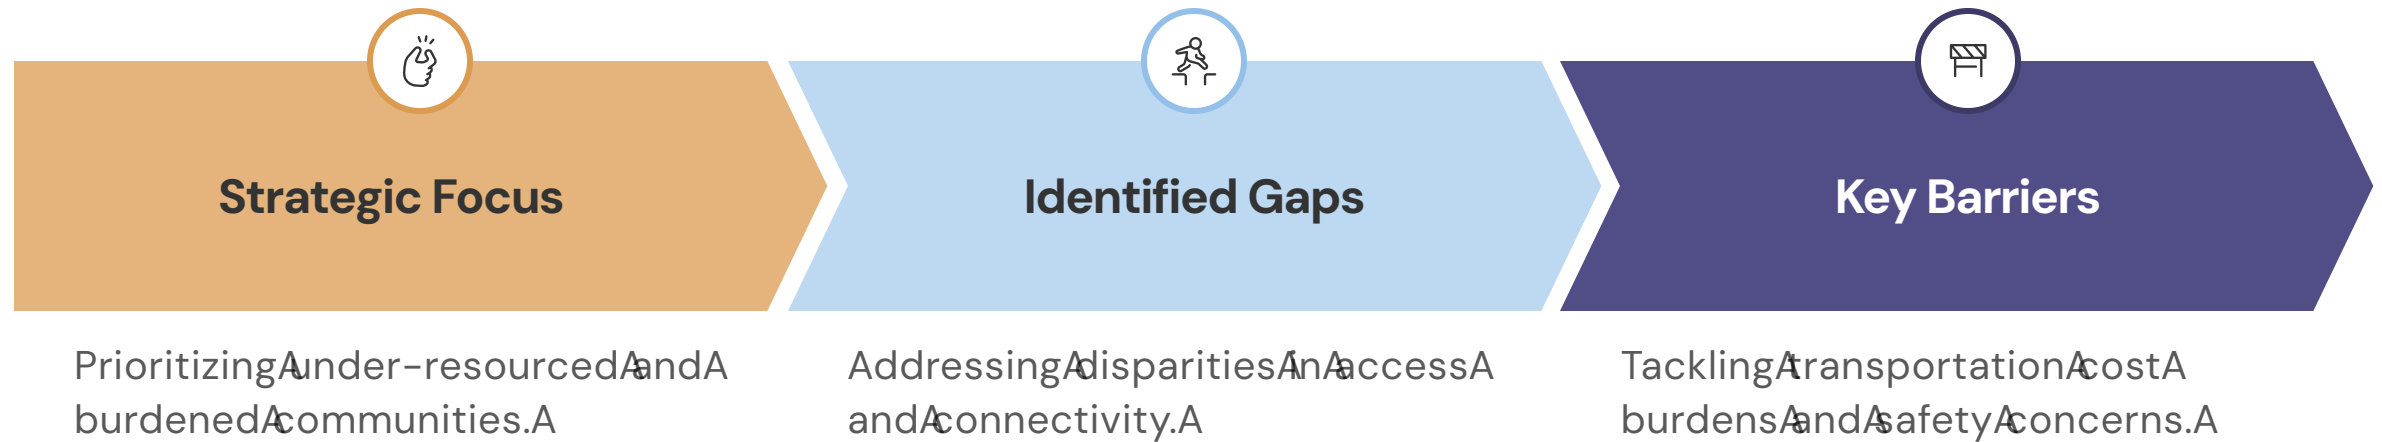

Why Include Aspirational Projects

- Maintains a Pipeline of Priority Projects
Ensures a continuous flow of important initiatives ready for implementation.
- Positions Region for Competitive Funding
Demonstrates readiness and strategic planning to attract external financial support.
- Allows Activation into TIP When Funding is Secured
Provides a framework to quickly incorporate projects once financial resources are confirmed.

The Constrained List shows what we can deliver today. The Aspirational List shows what the region is preparing to deliver as funding opportunities arise.

Major Shift #4: From Engagement to Investment

Engagement directly influenced how we consider investments in the plan.

Integrating Plan Goals

Aligning Investments with a Vision

Improve safety for all transportation system users

Build a multimodal system that offers safe, convenient, and accessible options for all modes

Maintain a transportation system that encourages economic vitality and vibrancy

Invest in transportation systems that promote a high quality of life and a healthy environment

Understanding the Community Landscape

Data-Informed Needs

Utilizing tools like CDPHE's EnviroScreen to identify and focus on areas with the greatest need.

Enhanced Access

Strategically considering access to essential jobs and community services.

Community Well-being

Highlighting investments that enhance safety and connectivity for all residents.

"This plan is more intentional about where investments go—not just what we build."

Interconnected Drivers of Project Development

How key factors influence our strategic planning and execution.

Goals, Objectives, and Strategies

GHG Emissions

Influences the types of projects undertaken.

Fiscal Constraints

Defines the scope and feasibility of what can be delivered.

Aspirational Projects

Preserve future opportunities and strategic options.

Community Engagement

Guides where investments are prioritized and occur.

THE INTERPLAY OF THESE ELEMENTS SHAPES PROJECT DEVELOPMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION.

Fiscally Constrained Program Overview

95 Projects Across Key Categories

Total Projects

95

Roadway / Corridor

69 projects

Multimodal

14

projects

Transit

projects

Safety

projects

While roadway projects represent the largest share of cost, many projects support multiple goals, including safety and multimodal access.

Investment Breakdown

Roadway Investments

Represents the largest share of investment, primarily due to associated costs.

Safety, Multimodal, and Transit

Strategic investments focused on achieving broader, cross-cutting objectives.

Roadway projects tend to be more expensive, which is why they dominate funding—but the plan still advances multiple goals across all modes.

Improvements from the 2045 Plan A

- Meets GHG Requirements

Achieves necessary greenhouse gas targets.

- Demonstrates Full Fiscal Constraint

Ensures financial viability and responsible spending.

- Aligns Investments with Community Needs

Prioritizes projects that benefit the community.

- Provides Realistic Aspirational Pipeline

Balances achievable goals with a long-term vision.

- Strengthens Funding Competitiveness

Enhances the plan's appeal for securing financial resources.

This plan is more implementable, more defensible, and more aligned with both policy and community priorities than the previous plan.

Next Steps A

- Board Adoption

Seek and secure approval from the board, targeted for April 23, 2026.

- Submission to CDOT and FHWA

Submit the finalized plan to the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) and the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA).

BACKGROUND:

Ensuring that your public meeting or event is accessible is a crucial step in uplifting the voices of every member of the community. This pamphlet will serve as a guide to help you ensure that all members of the public are able to engage with your event.

PRE-EVENT ACCESSIBILITY

The road to accessibility starts before your event begins. To ensure that your event is accessible make sure you:

- Have a clear point of contact for pre-event and accessibility communications
- Allow for prospective participants to request any necessary accommodations at least one week in advance
- Offer and provide accommodations to the reasonable extent possible
- Develop a public site plan that clearly labels accessible parking, bathrooms, elevators, and how to navigate your event space
- Account for maneuverability around the event space
- Provide spaces to sit and eat if providing refreshments

DISABILITY ETIQUETTE

It is important to engage with all participants in a way that is respectful, accommodating, and free of preconceived notions. When interacting directly with meeting participants, make sure to follow this basic etiquette:

- Address people directly and respectfully
- Make eye contact with and face the person you are talking to
- Don't assume mental capacity or physical ability; disabilities are not always visible and visible disabilities do not mean you should assume the presence of invisible or mental disabilities
- If you see someone struggling, politely offer help, but do not assume that someone needs help or is incapable of completing a task
- Pay attention to the audience, make eye contact while presenting, pay attention to see if participants are having difficulty seeing materials or hearing the presentation. Take appropriate action as necessary.
- Don't cut off people speaking, allow them to finish their full thought

AUDITORY ACCESSIBILITY

Auditory disabilities are common-place, and it is always in the best interest of your audience to ensure that all participants can hear presenters or speakers. A little bit of prep can often go a long way in ensuring auditory accessibility:

- Before your event, perform sound tests with all equipment
- Have each speaker practice using the microphone. Coach speakers on:
 - How to hold a microphone
 - What volume to speak at when using a microphone
 - Avoiding distraction or avoiding microphone use when hearing the sound of their own voice
- Control sound within the space, avoid having external noises or activity bleed into presentation spaces
- Have speakers or moderators repeat any questions asked by the audience during a Q&A
- Work with your venue to see what assistive listening technology is available
- If working in communities that have high non-English speaking populations, provide translation services as necessary, including sign language.
- Remind speakers, throughout the event, to use the microphone.

VISUAL ACCESSIBILITY

Accessibility of presentation materials is easy to overlook, falling into many accessibility traps that can hurt the viewing and listening experience of meetings:

- Make sure that room lighting and screen contrast make digital materials clearly visible. Materials should be at an appropriate height with no glare
- Avoid having text and background colors with low contrast
 - The MPO recommends using the following website to check color contrast: <https://webaim.org/resources/contrastchecker/>
- Print out digital materials before hand to ensure that formatting and color choices are still readable on physical copies
- Share information on a presentation in different ways:
 - Describe and explain tables or statistics
 - Describe pictures
 - Avoid long paragraphs, explain during the presentation
- The MPO recommends a minimum font size for presentation materials to be 16-18pt font in a clear and easy to read font.
- Ensure all materials are color-blind accessible

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY

Not all presentation locations are equally accessible; While there may be situations where you are forced to use an inaccessible location, when you have the flexibility to choose, consider the following:

- Locate the event space near accessible bathrooms
- Post clear signage and directions around your event space to direct participants towards amenities, away from locked doors or from parking to the event space itself
- Avoid locations which have inaccessible sidewalks, steep elevation changes, small elevators, and few or no ramps
